

BOOST THAT CV!

INSPIRING

Opportunities

for young people

If you're 18-30 years old and out of work then doing work experience can give you the skills and confidence to get the job you want.

GET WORK EXPERIENCE

Movement to Work is an organisation dedicated to building the bridge between young people who want to boost their CVs and leading employers willing to give them on-the-job experience to boost their prospects.

Simply head to the Movement to Work website to search a range of opportunities and pick the one that suits you best:

 www.movementtowork.com/job-search

 @MovementToWork

OTHER BENEFITS:

Once you visit and register with GetMyFirstJob you can:

- Receive regular notifications about new opportunities.
- Access a wide range of entry-level job opportunities, including traineeships and apprenticeships.
- Use the 'Career Hub' to build your CV, explore different areas of work and build your skills.

Supported by

